

WHAT WE DO

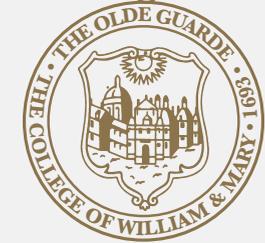

Through social, service and educational programs, we provide opportunities for members to connect with each other and support our alma mater.

OUR HISTORY

In 1975, members of the Class of 1925 formed the Olde Guarde to show their loyalty to alma mater and develop a meaningful role and identity within the William & Mary community for alumni who had celebrated their 50th reunion. The Olde Guarde now has more than 10,000 members.

WILLIAM & MARY
ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

OLDE GUARDE COUNCIL

Each year, two representatives from the newest class to enter the Olde Guarde are appointed for a term of up to 12 years on the 24-person Olde Guarde Council. The Council coordinates activities, events and projects for all classes in the Olde Guarde. The Council fosters and encourages the development of close bonds between the Olde Guarde and William & Mary.

*T*he Olde Guarde of Their Majesties' Royal Colledge in Virginia is comprised of all members of the Alumni Association whose undergraduate class graduated 50 or more years ago.
